

ART OF THE MASTERS PROGRAM
PRESENTS THE LIFE & WORK OF
ALBRECHT DÜRER

› Albrecht Dürer is generally regarded as the greatest German Renaissance artist. His vast body of work includes copper engravings, woodcut prints, watercolors and oil paintings. He painted religious altarpieces, landscapes and portraits including several self-portraits. Many refer to him as the Leonardo da Vinci of Northern Europe since both men were brilliant, inventive and masters of the Arts.

› During our hands-on session, we will explore how to create a copper rubbing. Afterwards, we will distress our copper rubbings with paint. At the end, each student will have their very own framed masterpiece.
